

Register of Pecuniary and
Other Specified Interests of
Members of Parliament:
Summary of annual returns as at 31 January 2019

Fifty-second Parliament

*Presented to the House of Representatives pursuant to Appendix B of the Standing
Orders of the House of Representatives*

MISTER SPEAKER

I have the honour to provide to you, pursuant to clause 18(3) of Appendix B of the Standing Orders of the House of Representatives, a copy of the summary booklet containing a fair and accurate description of the information contained in all returns received during the period for transmitting annual returns for the Register of Pecuniary and Other Specified Interests of Members of Parliament as at 31 January 2019.

Sir Maarten Wevers KNZM

Registrar of Pecuniary and Other Specified Interests of Members of Parliament

Introduction

Since 2005, members of Parliament have been required to make an annual return of their pecuniary and other specified personal interests, as set out in clauses 5 to 8 of Appendix B of the Standing Orders of the House of Representatives. The interests that are required to be registered are listed below.

Items 1 to 10 provide a “snapshot” or stock of pecuniary and specified interests of members as at 31 January 2019. Items 11 to 14 identify a flow of members’ interests for the period from the member’s previous return. This report summarises the information provided to the Registrar in members’ returns in respect of any of the categories below, which may apply to a member:

- 1 Company directorships and controlling interests (clause 5(1)(a))
- 2 Interests (such as shares and bonds) in companies and business entities (clause 5(1)(b) and (2))
- 3 Employment (clause 5(1)(c))
- 4 Interests in trusts (clause 5(1)(d))
- 5 Organisations and trusts seeking Government funding (clause 5(1)(e) and (3))
- 6 Real property (clause 5(1)(f) and (1)(g))
- 7 Superannuation schemes (clause 5(1)(h))
- 8 Managed investment schemes (clause 5(1)(i))
- 9 Debtors (clauses 5(1)(j), 5(4), 6, and 7)
- 10 Creditors (clauses 5(1)(k), 5(4), 6, and 7)
- 11 Overseas travel (clause 8(1)(a) and (2))
- 12 Gifts (clause 8(1)(b) and (3))
- 13 Discharged debts (clause 8(1)(c) and (4))
- 14 Payments for activities (clause 8(1)(d) and (5)).

Registrar’s comments on returns process

This Register of Pecuniary and Other Specified Interests of Members of Parliament is the second compiled for members serving in the 52nd Parliament. The 2017 Standing Orders define the purpose of the Register as being “to record members’ interests, thereby providing transparency and strengthening public trust and confidence in parliamentary processes and decision-making”. In my view, this year’s summary of annual returns once again serves this purpose, through describing the nature and extent, within limits, of the private interests of members of Parliament. Members of the public and a range of external parties can take these declared interests into account as they assess the behaviour and performance of members of Parliament as they go about their duties in the House.

Over the past twelve months, there has been relatively little turnover in the membership of the House, and the returns process proceeded smoothly. I have continued to provide advice and guidance to members as they have prepared their returns, in order that they may fulfil their obligations set out in the Standing Orders. There were no matters of particular concern raised by members this year, which reflects, in my view, members' familiarity with both the requirements of the Register and their personal responsibilities in relation to it.

My role as Registrar is to compile and maintain the Register. It remains the responsibility of individual members to submit a return that meets the requirement of the Standing Orders. I welcome members' timely submission of returns this year, which reflects, I believe, ongoing support from members for the Register's purpose.
